

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY BRIEF

50X1

29 DECEMBER 1964

DAILY BRIEF 29 DECEMBER 1964
l. South Vietnam	much bickering among the generals, but that the civil government's relations	50X1 with them are improving. the generals and Khanh have accepted Ambassador Taylor's suggestion of talks on the situation. This seems promising,	50X1
	but on the other hand the generals are still detaining several members of the High Council.	50 X 1
		50X
2. North Vietnam	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	50X1
		e de la composición de la composición La composición de la
3. Congo		50X1
l. Panama	The extreme left, knocked off bal-
l. Panama	ance by the recent US declaration on the
. Panama	ance by the recent US declaration on the Canal question, is seeking to regain the initiative by supporting a rising ultra-
. Panama	ance by the recent US declaration on the Canal question, is seeking to regain the initiative by supporting a rising ultranationalist demand for "neutralization." By this they mean withdrawal of US mili-
. Panama	ance by the recent US declaration on the Canal question, is seeking to regain the initiative by supporting a rising ultranationalist demand for "neutralization." By this they mean withdrawal of US military forces from Panama. The Robles government, although pleased by the US
. Panama	ance by the recent US declaration on the Canal question, is seeking to regain the initiative by supporting a rising ultranationalist demand for "neutralization." By this they mean withdrawal of US military forces from Panama. The Robles government, although pleased by the US stand, apparently thinks it politically unwise to publicly repudiate this de-
l. Panama	ance by the recent US declaration on the Canal question, is seeking to regain the initiative by supporting a rising ultranationalist demand for "neutralization." By this they mean withdrawal of US military forces from Panama. The Robles government, although pleased by the US stand, apparently thinks it politically
	ance by the recent US declaration on the Canal question, is seeking to regain the initiative by supporting a rising ultranationalist demand for "neutralization." By this they mean withdrawal of US military forces from Panama. The Robles government, although pleased by the US stand, apparently thinks it politically unwise to publicly repudiate this demand.  Tension is running high between ance by the recent US declaration on the Canal question, is seeking to regain the initiative by supporting a rising ultranationalist demand for "neutralization." By this they mean withdrawal of US military forces from Panama. The Robles government, although pleased by the US stand, apparently thinks it politically unwise to publicly repudiate this demand.  Tension is running high between rival rightist factions in Vientiane, and an attempt to take over the governance by the recent US declaration on the Canal question, is seeking to regain the initiative by supporting a rising ultranationalist demand for "neutralization." By this they mean withdrawal of US military forces from Panama. The Robles government, although pleased by the US stand, apparently thinks it politically unwise to publicly repudiate this demand.  Tension is running high between rival rightist factions in Vientiane, and an attempt to take over the government could be triggered. The presence of the King may, however, help calm
1. Panama 5. Laos	ance by the recent US declaration on the Canal question, is seeking to regain the initiative by supporting a rising ultranationalist demand for "neutralization." By this they mean withdrawal of US military forces from Panama. The Robles government, although pleased by the US stand, apparently thinks it politically unwise to publicly repudiate this demand.  Tension is running high between rival rightist factions in Vientiane, and an attempt to take over the government could be triggered. The presence

6. UAR

Nasir is apparently the source of a rumor in Cairo that the Soviets have promised to increase their economic aid to the UAR if US aid diminishes. If this is more than talk intended for US ears, Nasir may still find the Soviets readier with promises than with food grains and hard currency.